WHO'S WHO AMONG NORTH AMERICAN AUTHORS
Vol. VI, 1933-34-35

Sept. 20, 1935

Mr. Hubert V. Coryell
1155 Massachusetts Ave.
Lexington, Mass.

Dear Mr. Coryell:

We have received a bill from the publishers, notifying us that they have mailed to you a copy of INDIAN BROTHERS. This is indeed good news, and we trust that you will be kind enough to inscribe this for us and send it for our Maine Author Collection. A cordial welcome awaits this book.

Very truly yours

Dear Mr. Coryell:

Please accept our sincere thanks for your very gracious inscription in the Maine Author Collection copy of INDIAN BROTHER. We are delighted to be able to include this book on our shelves, for it is not only a Maine background book, but an excellent and exciting story. We feel certain that the boys and girls will welcome it with eagerness.

Again we thank you, and extend our best wishes for a very successful season.

Very truly yours

Dear Mr. Coryell:

It is regrettable that the Maine Author Collection should have had to wait until now for a copy of your last splendid book with a Maine background, THE SCALP HUNTERS.

We are requesting the publishers to send you a copy, which we hope you will be so kind as to inscribe and send to us, under the enclosed label and postage, for this collection.

We trust that your summer has been a very pleasant one, and that another book is nearing completion, which we may anticipate this season.

Very truly yours
